

Liquidity Services, Inc. Continues Rank as Top Performer on Russell 2000 and Russell 3000 Indexes

June 26, 2007

Inclusion in Indexes is Based On Company's Market Capitalization

WASHINGTON, Jun 26, 2007 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Liquidity Services, Inc. (NASDAQ:LQDT), a leading online auction marketplace for wholesale, surplus and salvage assets, announced today that it remains on the Russell 2000 Index, Russell 3000 Index and the Russell Microcap Index after the 2007 Russell Index Reconstitution, effective as of June 25, 2007.

The Russell indexes capture the 3,000 largest U.S. stocks, ranking them by total market capitalization to create the Russell 3000. The largest 1,000 companies in the ranking comprise the Russell 1000 while the remaining 2,000 companies become the widely used Russell 2000. Membership in Russell's U.S. equity indexes, which remains in place for one year, is determined primarily by market capitalization rankings.

"We are pleased to be recognized as a top performer in the Russell indexes for a second year in a row since the completion of our Initial Public Offering in February 2006," said Bill Angrick, Chairman and CEO of LSI. "This recognition highlights the continued success of our business in creating highly liquid and scalable online marketplaces to remarket and sell surplus assets and wholesale goods on behalf of large corporations and government agencies."

As of its March 31, 2007 quarter, LSI has achieved 18 consecutive quarters of profitability and has grown its commercial division over 100% year-over-year for the past six quarters. Its major sellers include Fortune 500 retailers, manufacturers and distributors, the United States Department of Defense, the United Kingdom Ministry of Defence, the Environmental Protection Agency and the Government of the District of Columbia.
